
Have your ID ready

Three ways to prove your identity and address

1. One government-issued photo ID (federal, provincial, municipal) with your current address, e.g.:

- Driver's licence
- Manitoba Identification Card
- Any other government identification with your photo, name and current address

Or

One government-issued photo ID (federal, provincial, municipal) that does not include your current address, e.g.:

- Canadian Passport
- Indian Status Card
- Canadian Forces Photo Identification Card
- Any other government identification with your photo and name.

If the government photo ID does not have a current address, you will need to sign a form confirming your address.

2. Two pieces of ID:

Any combination of the following ID will be accepted. At least one must have your current address or you will need to take a declaration of address.

- Elections Manitoba Voter Information Card
- Birth certificate
- Manitoba Health card
- Certificate of Canadian citizenship
- Citizenship card
- Veterans Affairs Health Card
- CNIB card
- Employee card
- Parolee card
- Licence or card issued for fishing, trapping or hunting
- Residential lease or sub-lease
- Mortgage contract or statement
- Income tax assessment
- Property tax assessment or evaluation
- Insurance certificate, policy or statement
- Firearms license
- Social insurance number card
- Band membership card
- MMF Métis Citizenship card
- Card issued by an Inuit local authority
- Old age security card
- Credit card
- Debit card
- Student identity card
- Utility bill (e.g. electricity; water; telecommunications services including telephone, cable or satellite)
- Bank statement
- Credit union statement
- Credit card statement
- Correspondence issued by a school, college or university
- Letter from a public guardian or public trustee
- Pleasure Craft Operators License
- Government employee card
- Medical clinic card
- Label on a prescription container
- Identity bracelet issued by a hospital or long-term care facility
- Blood donor card
- Hospital card
- Public transportation card
- Library card
- Liquor identity card
- Personal cheque
- Government statement of benefits
- Government cheque or cheque stub
- Pension plan statement
- Letter of confirmation of residence from a First Nations band or reserve or an Inuit local authority
- Letter of confirmation of residence, admission form or statement of benefits from one of the following designated establishments:
 - student or seniors' residence
 - long-term care facility
 - shelter
 - colony
- Vehicle registration
- Employer paycheque

Electronic documents such as e-bills are acceptable forms of ID. Photos of ID are also acceptable.

3. Vouching (election day only)

If you are on the voters list on election day, and don't have ID with your name, you can take an oath and have someone who knows you vouch for you. This person must be on the voters list, show proof of identity and address, be registered in the same electoral division, take an oath and vouch for only one person.